

Safety Caps

Product Information

Safety caps are a plastic accessory which are used to cover the protruding ends of reinforcing steel prior to the concrete being poured.

It's a safety measure to ensure that there are fewer injuries on the worksite and to enable workers to maintain the pace of construction without the risk of injury.

They're an extremely cost-effective way of increasing the overall safety of the construction site, while also maintaining efficiency and productivity.

Stock Sizes

Product Code	Size	Brand
CSCC1220	12mm - 20mm	Connolly
CSCC2436	24mm - 36mm	Connolly
RES1220	12mm - 20mm	Danley
RES2432	24mm - 32mm	Danley

